TEACHER SPOTLIGHT: LISA CASAL-GALIETTA

EEA’s violin teacher with a passion for performance and a love of teaching.

“I began teaching at East End Arts 10 years ago, in 2012. Since I started here, I have had the privilege to guide many wonderful violinists of all different ages and backgrounds on their musical journeys. I love being able to share all of the gifts that music has to offer with excited and inquisitive minds. I enjoy watching students mature musically, nurture their creativity, sharpen their skills on their instrument, and help them become confident and productive problem solvers too!

I look forward to welcoming future students into my studio, here at the school, and enriching their lives through learning the violin!”

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT: ERRONN BRIDGEWATER

Brilliant mind, beautiful music!

Erronn Bridgewater is a sophomore at Riverhead Charter School and a violinist studying under Lisa Casal Galietta at East End Arts for the past 6 years. He has participated in the Red Door Chamber Orchestra by Partners Chamber Program, Theresa Kim’s International Music Sessions where he studied under Jennifer Liu, and the Music Masters Mentoring Program with Itzhak Perlman. He is a level 4 in New York State Music School Association (NYSSMA) and has played at multiple local events, including the women’s luncheon in Westhampton and the SVG Diaspora Heritage Awards in NYC.

Erronn is not sure what's in store for his career, but he plans to study science at a 6-year university. He would also like to use his music in a therapeutic form to help struggling children. Studying music at East End Arts is an enriching piece of Erronn's journey. Sending him off to college in two years will be bittersweet for us all.

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT: DON OREHEK
The Art of Lines & Laughs

Every cartoonist must hone the balance between illustration and copywriting, and a career cartoonist also consistently balance the publications’ objectives and readers’ entertainment factor. With hundreds of cartoons published in Good Housekeeping, Saturday Evening Post, and Playboy (to name a few) since the 1960’s, LI native Don Orehek embodies the professional cartoonist, providing laughs to the masses for decades. This spring nearly 100 of Don’s works, both published and unpublished, will fill the walls of East End Arts’ Main St. Galleries. Since some humor stands the test of time while some can be labeled vintage, all the pages provide entertainment and prompt a giggle. You’ll see pieces in various stages of process, including some of the final published clippings.

NEW ART EXHIBITION OPENS APRIL 1 (NO FOOLIN’)
SCULPTURE BY CLAYTON OREHEK + CARTOONS BY DON OREHEK: APRIL 1 - MAY 7, 2022

It is not uncommon for us to see artistic talents run through family lines. It is much less common for us to have the opportunity to combine them into an exhibition. Lights ’n Giggles is an immersive art experience displaying not only the talents of this LI native Uncle-Nephew pair but also a delightful dichotomy of artistic styles, generations, and social commentary. Prepare yourself for an interactive and hysterical gallery tour like never before!

SPRING 2008: ’CREATIVE PROCESS’ WITH THE WATERMILL CENTER

Stumbling upon this 13 year old photo gave us chill-bumps considering it looks as though it was taken just recently. Its subjects are an acting troupe from a 2008 collaborative project between EEA and the Watermill Center titled Creative Process. The two day event featured a talk by artist Peter Marcelle at the EEA Gallery that was featuring an exhibition of the same name, followed by an ‘open rehearsal’ of a politically inspired performance at the Center directed by Victor Gauthier-Martin about the anti-globalization protests in Genoa, Italy 2001.
