

Michael Meehan was born in New York City and received his BFA from Cornell University and MFA from the New York Studio School. Michael has lived, worked and exhibited in New York, California and Sweden. He currently divides his time between Brooklyn and the Hudson Valley and Eastern Long Island, where his family lives.

Exhibitions include Hartell Gallery, Cornell University NY; Elaine Benson Gallery, Bridgehampton, NY; Thomas A. Oldham Gallery, Sacramento, CA; Butterfield & Butterfield, San Francisco, CA; National Arts Club, NY; New York Studio School, NY; George Billis Gallery, NY; Bowery Gallery, NY; Prince Street Gallery, NY; Drawing from Perception VI, Wright State University, OH; Vivid Space Gallery, San Diego, CA; Paul Thiebaud Gallery, San Francisco; Geary Contemporary, New York, NY; MM Fine Art, Southampton, NY; Pamela Salisbury Gallery, Hudson NY.

Michael is represented by Pamela Salisbury Gallery, Hudson, NY.